"THE RISE OF THE RAIDERS"

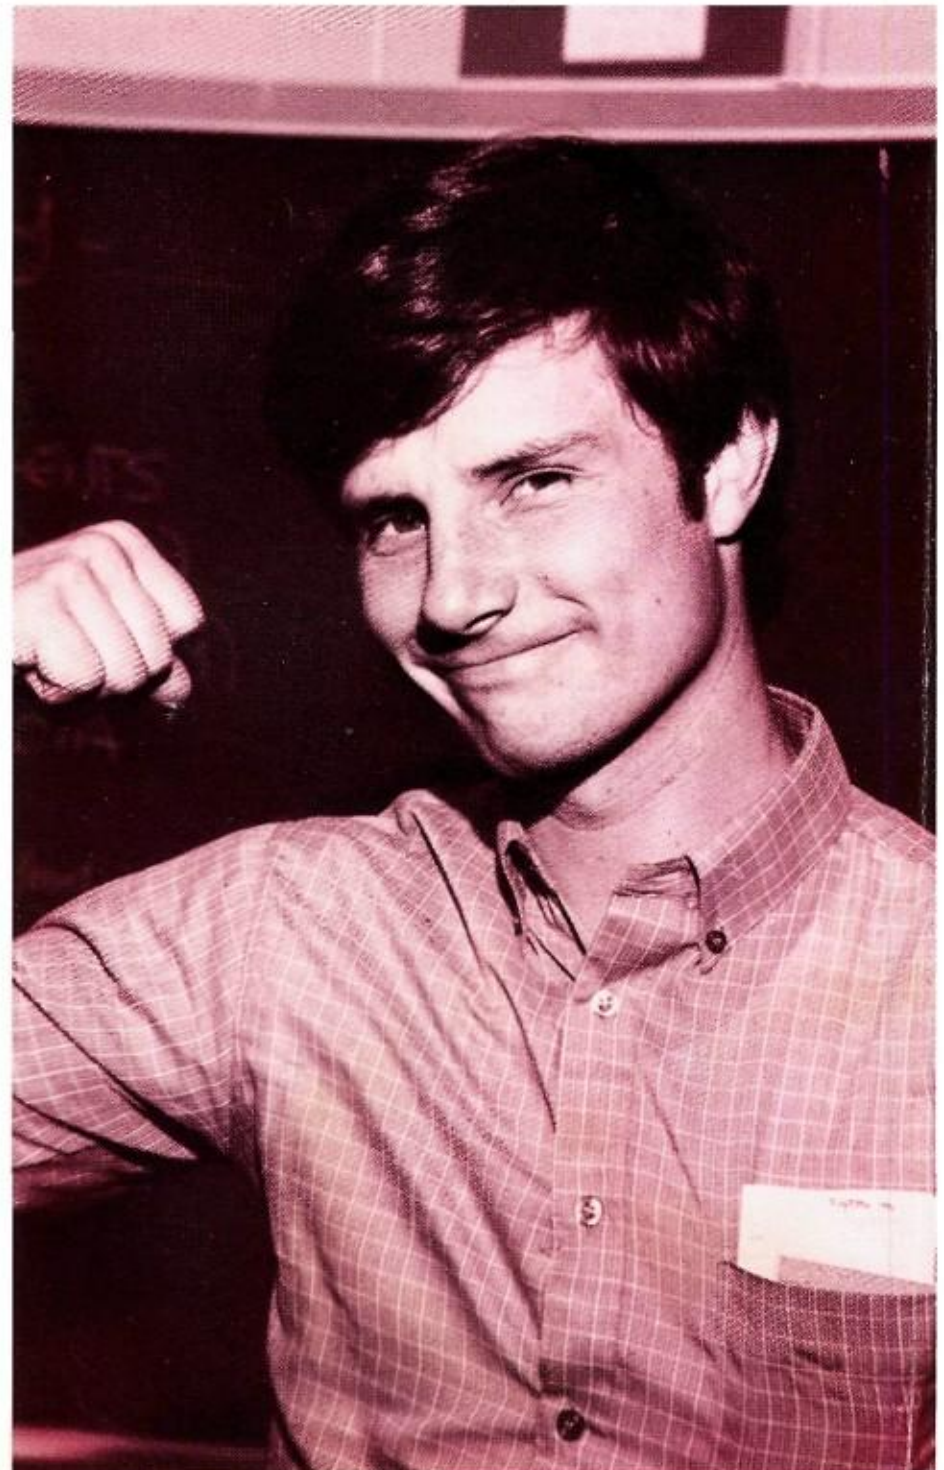

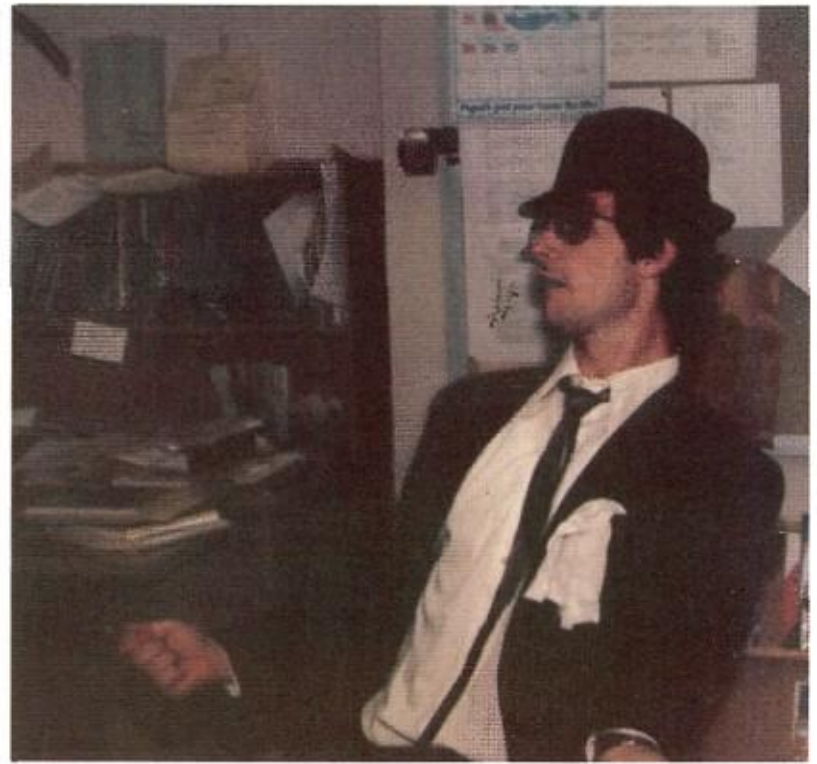

Hi,
It's been a good
time in math (I think).
I can tell you are an "A"
student the way you
paid attention "all the time"
in here you had fun.
Too bad you don't have the privilege of graduating with me but there's the breakers.
Good luck next year &
Party down in the summer.
Good luck on exams. (I like you really care?).

Dedication

Mr. Nowak you are incredible! Positive sanctions are being bestowed upon you for your dedication to DWI, Unicef, and most importantly your students. Besides being a very alive human being with a spunky personality, you are a wonderful teacher. You put tremendous amounts of time and care into each of your classes. Not only do you teach us academics, from you we also learn values of living. You care about each of your individual students and offer your time to help us out with a problem. You let us into your life and family, often incorporating both into lesson. Thank you for really dedicating yourself to the important things you believe in, like DWI. You have probably saved one of us this year. We express our thanks with the small token of dedicating the 1982-83 Hourglass to you, you incredible guy.

I'm really surprised at the way our class has developed so much spirit. The way everybody has gotten involved. I've learned a lot from you people this year and I hope I've helped you to have as good senior year as possible.

Eric Zimmerman

This is the class of '83!

No more Homerooms you must be on time for,
 No more being told to be quiet in study hall,
 No more callslips to the main office or to Mr. A's office,
 No more Library restrictions for making goat sounds,
 No more 9th period studyhalls that last forever,
 No more Inschool suspensions,
 No more after school detention,
 No more bells to tell you when to leave class and more bells to tell you when to be there,
 No more being asked to show a pass in the halls,
 No more assemblies that everyone tries to skip,
 No more food wars,
 No more senior pranks,
 No more leaving school for lunch at Burger King,
 No more hanging out at the book store,
 No more racing out of the parking lot at the end of the day,
 No more parties at Mendon Ponds,
 No more ski club,
 Nevermore will we be called Seniors of Fairport High.

The classes are over. It's time to move on. But we leave with something that no one can take away, the love of our friends and the memories of this senior year. Sweet and strong, wild and free, we were the class of '83.

I have thought about this quote for a long time, trying to come up with some philosophical say of some great importance. But then I thought. There is no one philosophy that fits anyone person. So all I can do is hope and pray for you in the many happy years to come because you people are the people to be reckoned.

Gary Roscoe

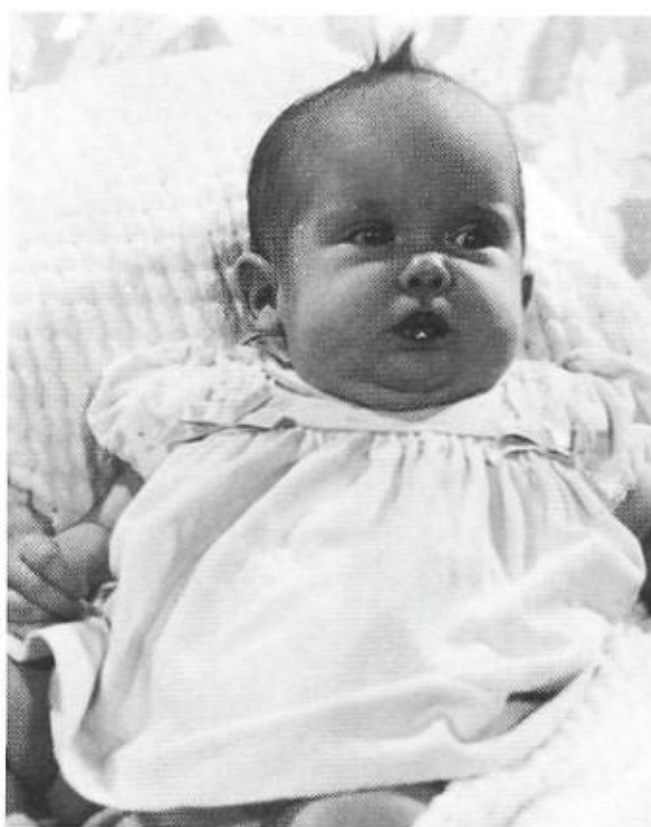

This year has certainly been really really exciting. I had so much fun getting to know new people. It was even more enjoyable to watch others become friends. I hope that the friendships I watched develop and the ones that I'm a part of will last forever. Thank you everybody for all of the support and caring that was given this year.

Spending happy times just as the youth inside comes to show
Saying hello with the feeling of joy
And whispering good-bye at the end of a cry
These are tempos that shall not be lost
Never to escape our minds
Peek at the looking-glass, and then find out what is Really inside yourself
Live for the frolic of things
And enjoy the strength of the gift of life
Be longing for the wishing
And understand the sincerity of all mankind
Always be searching for the top
But be content with what you've got
Understand the world and all its misfortunes
Dreams of the good life we must keep close
Nothing will ever go bad if the defending good thoughts
Are near
Lay out the dead and bring in the fresh
Open the door for the fine tide to rush in at every smile
And light up the world at the thoughts of re-living the Good times
Our generation is a strange one at that Shall any of the past understand our kind
Our feelings say "Good Luck"
We are the best and we will always be!!
The world is overflowing with misfortunes
With the help of smiles we can overcome all of the obstacles
That stand in our way
We must (our generation) pull together and conquer the world
As we seem fit
